IA. P. NIGHT REPORT.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—W. J. Bryan has followed the example of President McKinley and declined to be a visitor at the national encampment of the G.A.R. He has, however, sent a message to General Lester W. Ladd, in charge of the local committee in charge of the local end of the encampment, saying that because of the absence of President McKinley from the encampment he considered it advisable to remain away. His telegram is as follows:

Regiment band, were driven down Michigan avenue to the big white arch erected in honor of the veterans of the navy. Commodore George L. Harvey, commanding the naval veterans, after a prayer by Bishop Fallows, introduced Dr. Murdoch, who, in a brief, eloquent speech, eulogized the great-hearted tasks which they took in the fight for the Union, and dedicated the arch to their honor. About 1,000 men and a thousand spectators uncovered as the band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

General Fallows delivered the benediction, and General Harvey and his escort left immediately to take their places in the naval parade.

Gen. John C. Black may have received a telegram from Gen. Ladd, commanding the Department of the Pacific, expressing regret at not being able to attend the encampment for the past two days. Number of the horses and military supplies were being shipped to China, and that within the next ten days several vessels were to be loaded which required his attention.

Gen. E. S. Otis, telegraphed from Rochester, that he would be present at the national encampment of the G.A.R. at Glenwood Springs, Colo., and Senator Thurston and Hon. C. H. Grosvenor telegraphed regrets from Washington.

LAWRENCE, KAN., Aug. 27.—The late afternoon feature of the day's celebration, the naval parade on Lake Michigan, proved somewhat of a disappointment, weather conditions interfering sadly with the arrangements.

The naval parade, right off Lincoln Park closed the official programme of the encampment for the day, but all over the city in various halls and in all the hotels there were reunions of regiments almost without number and descriptions. One of the leading affairs of the night was the banquet of the Iron Brigade, which was held at the city hall, with 1,000 guests, at 6:30 o'clock. The speakers were Speaker Henderson, Senator Burrows of Michigan, Gov. Scoville of Wisconsin, Com. Gen. Clegg, Com. Gen. of the G.A.R., Gov. Mount of Indiana, Comptroller of the Currency Dawes and Gen. Bragg. James Whitcomb Riley recited a poem.

Eloquent speeches by soldiers and statesmen and patriotic music, vocal and instrumental, made memorable the annual meeting of the convention of Sons of Veterans, which was held in Memorial Hall tonight. Commander-in-Chief Shaw of the G.A.R. delivered the principal address of the evening. He spoke as follows:

"The age in which we live is cast without parallel in the past, and opportunities for work for God and God's kingdom are almost as numerous as they ever have been before. The veterans of the '60s have mainly done their work, and their work during the great war will be imperishable. A country free, a union indissoluble, Stars and Stripes beloved and honored by all our people, a common basis of Christian civilization, and republic first in the foremost flight of individual rights and broad justice, are the immutable foundations of our nation. As the shadows lengthen, as they face the setting sun of life, the veterans look with admiring pride upon their sons who have carried on the great mission in all that insures lofty views of love of country, and safe ambitions to preserve the American Union in all its nobility, the basis of our commanding civilization, and the true glory of Almighty God."

The world half of war has been overcome, and the days of peace and the nights of the sons of the veterans who marched amid the sacrifices of sorrow's night of blood and agony, in peace and joy, happy in their achievements, in their strength and peerless in their girth and grain as ardent young Americans.

The work of the aging veterans is largely done, and the Sons of Veterans will be called upon to especially keep alive the spirit of national patriotism, when their fathers are silent, the sleep that knows no waking on earth.

"So true is that the best inspirations of rightness and equality will be born and kept at the front in all our Union, and that our text-books are national in their scope, just and worthy in their characters, and equal to all the noble purposes of a brotherhood of man, peerless in their girth and grain as ardent young Americans.

OPPONENTS IN SESSION.

ROGERS SLATE TURNED DOWN.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 27.—The opponents in this State to the Republican party are holding their convention in this city. They went into session at 2 o'clock, and did not adjourn, except for a short period, until late tonight.

The most significant development to-day lies in the apparent defeat of the Gov. Rogers, which carried with it the Gov. Rogers as the nominee of the Republicans for the office which he now occupies. When the Populist convention met, State Land Commissioner Bridges was elected chairman, a general resolution was adopted to name the committee of five to confer with like committees from the other conventions. Such man he is against Rogers.

Tom Vance, Assistant Attorney General, was the majority chairman of the Democratic convention. Rogers and anti-Rogers people united on him.

Senator George Turner was nominated by the Rogers men, and was elected chairman. Charles G. Heffner was nominated by the anti-Rogers people and was elected by a majority of five or six. The anti-Rogers people say that the true test of strength, and Rogers, it would seem, tonight, is out of the race.

HANNA WILL REMAIN.

NEEDS HIS PRESENCE.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT)

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Senator Hanna has decided to remain in the East much longer than he expected. Hanna stated last night that he might not depart for the West for at least three weeks. When he began the campaign at the Republican national headquarters in this city, his plan was to remain here only long enough to map out the campaign and then go to Chicago.

He has decided, however, that the continuation of the campaign require his continued presence in the East. According to several morning papers, Hanna's decision is that the time has come to prolong his stay here to give the news that the Democratic National Committee had resolved to have him conduct an active campaign for Hanna in the Eastern and Middle MARYVILLE, Aug. 27.—The County Republican Convention met here to-day. It included the administration of President McKinley, the candidacy of Lawrence Schilling for Assembyman from the Eighth Assembly District and E. A. Forbes for Congress from the Second Congress District.

A. E. Johnson, Sherman and W. C. McMillan were nominated for supervisors from the Second, Third and Fourth districts of Yuba county.

DEMOCRATS AT VISALIA.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT)

VIRALIA (Calif.) Aug. 27.—At the Democratic County Convention today, Henry Lewison was nominated for Assemblyman from this district. He is a prosperous merchant of Visalia.

"AUNTIES" IN SESSION.

POPS MAY SPLIT UP.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 27.—The State conventions of the three anti-Republican parties will assemble here at 3 o'clock today in separate halls. Fusion will be accomplished at once and easily.

Gov. Rogers seems certain at the present moment of receiving a renomination. The opposition is uniting on Charles Voorhees of Spokane.

Rogers' nomination may cause a split in the fusion forces of the State, the Populists of some counties threatening a bolt.

WALCOTT QUIT.

Let the Fight Go to Tommy West.

Latter Was Making a Poor Showing.

Fitzsimmons to Quit the Ring—Little Still the Tennis Champion.

IA. P. NIGHT REPORT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The fight between Tommy West and Joe Walcott, which was the main attraction of the Twentieth Century Club in Madison Square, ended in a most peevish manner tonight. The bout had gone eleven rounds, and very much in Walcott's favor, as he punished West badly about the body, and held him in a very weakened condition. West had the last round for the twelfth round, to the surprise of everybody. Walcott refused to go on, claiming that he had injured his left arm.

Referee Charlie White, suspecting foulness, insisted on Walcott's coming out, but the negro refused to do so, which left White no other alternative than to declare West the winner. Referee White said:

"Walcott was not injured; he quit deliberately, and I am inclined to the opinion that he was actuated by some dishonest motive. I believe Walcott was encouraged to act as he did by some persons closely connected with him. That he should act thus is no excuse, as he should have had a precedent for similar work in San Francisco, not so very long ago."

Manager Kennedy, on behalf of the champion, said: "Walcott should have known that the money would not be given to him, but would be donated to some charitable institution. As a betting man in New York, he could not dare call it off, as he would like to do."

"Kid" McFadden of San Francisco and Jimmy Clark of the city made up the other bout of 115 pounds. They were to have fought twelve rounds, but the New Yorker was forced to quit in the eleventh round, as he had been hit in the head and was unable to stand. Walcott had maintained a fight over his heart. The early rounds were full of fast work.

Fitzsimmons RETIRES.

GOES OUT WITH HORTON LAW.

IA. P. NIGHT REPORT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Peter Fitzsimmons took up his retirement from the pugilistic ring. He made an ineffectual attempt today to get on a match for the heavyweight championship with James J. Jeffries, to take place before the Hornor last evening, but was unsuccessful.

He had been in the ring for a month and tonight issued the following statement:

"I am through with fighting. I will retire from the ring, and will not claim the championship from Jeffries. I am returning to the States, and will be home by Friday night. As my manager suggested ten days ago, but as he claims he is in no condition to fight on the night, I am through with the ring. Henceforth there will be one man less in the heavyweight division, for I will go out with the champion."

BEFORE THE MEETING.

IA. P. DAY REPORT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—By far the most important match of the day was the women's golf championship ever held by the Women's Golf Association of America. It will begin tomorrow morning on the links of the Shinnecock Club of Southampton. Fifty-five fair experts have been engaged, and at least ten of these are believed to have excellent chances of winning.

WILL THEY BE WISE?

The question as to who is to become president of the Southern Pacific Company in place of the late Collis P. Huntington, is apparently a master of small moment, in comparison, for instances, with the question of who is to be the next President of the United States, which is now engaging the attention of the public. Yet, for several reasons, this question is one of direct import to the people of California and adjacent States and Territories through which the lines of that corporation extend. That the Southern Pacific Company is an immense power in this State, even its enemies do not attempt to deny. They only dispute the fact that such power has too frequently been exercised in opposition to the best interests of California.

Two persons have been prominently mentioned as likely to assume the position made vacant by the death of Collis P. Huntington. One is his nephew, H. H. Huntington, who during the past few years has been very close to the departed railroad king, and the other, Charles J. Tweed, general counsel and second vice-president of the company. There is a difference of opinion as to which appointment would be to the best interest of the people of California. On Mr. Tweed, comparatively little is known here, but it is surmised that he would be free from prejudice and preconceived, and in some cases unreasonable, requests were granted, until it finally began to dawn upon the people of the State that this corporation, instead of working in harmony with two people of the State by whom it had been brought into life and treated with such great liberality, and instead of seeking by liberal rates to develop the virgin wealth of California, while at the same time increasing its own income, was disposed to look upon the State as a patient cow to be milked. In other words, they seemed to regard California as a conquered territory, which they had the privilege of looting through their tariff schedules.

Naturally, there was a constantly increasing protest from the producers of the State, who found that their energy was capital going to pay interest to Southern Pacific stockholders, leaving them out in the cold. This protest took form in the State Legislature, as was right and proper, whereupon the Southern Pacific Company, instead of listening to reason and justice, organized its corrupt "legal department" for the purpose of defeating the will of the people at the caucuses, at conventions and at the polls, or failing that, to purchase the legislators outright. The late Mr. Huntington is on record as admitting, in a letter to one of his partners, that he had bought an Arizona Legislature on bloc for $600. And it is notorious that eleven State legislators were once bought for $600 apiece to vote for a railroad man for United States Senator.

So much of the past. Let us hope that under the new management, who ever may be at the head, a wiser and more decent course will be pursued by the Southern Pacific Company. Let the company remove itself entirely from the political field, in which it does not in any way belong; let it join hand in hand with the upstanding people of California, and they—with the exception of a few henchmen who might be thrown out of a job—will be equally responsive to the will of the people.

Failing this—supposing that an appeal to reason and justice has no weight with those at the head of the affairs of the corporation—they should at least consider the question of self-interest. They cannot surely be so blind that they do not read the handwriting on the wall. The one-man power—the one-company day of railroads in California has gone, never to return. Competition is already here, and more is rapidly coming. There is yet time for the Southern Pacific Company to resume the place which it once held in the esteem of the people of California, and to retain its legitimate share of the transportation business of the Coast, which is destined to assume immense importance within the next few years. Should it, on the other hand, persistently shut its eyes to thfacts, and continue to pursue the shortsighted and unreasonable policy of the past, then those who are at the head of the corporation will certainly have no cause for surprise when they find the business of the company gradually slipping away into the hands of more enlightened, progressive, just and reasonable rivals.

THE CHINESE SITUATION.

There is no material change in the situation of affairs in China. The report that Russia, Japan and Germany had declared war proves to be—as every well-informed person regarded it when it was first circulated—a canard. When these powers declare war, we shall not receive the first news of such action from the Orient.

Prince Okukomaki, a "gentleman-in-waiting" to the Czar, has arrived in New York. He declares, in an interview, that Russia is opposed to the division of the Chinese Empire. He is quoted as speaking in a very distrustful manner of Germany and her purposes in the Orient, declaring that "Germany went to the East to do harm to Russia."

A dispatch from Tokio mentions a report from the Japanese general in Peking, to the effect that the Chinese have not abandoned hope of retaking Peking, and that nine thousand men with fifteen guns are advancing for that purpose from Shantung.

The American gunboat Castine has been ordered from Shanghai to Amoy, to report on conditions there. Commander Bowman is in charge of the vessel.

Great excitement is reported at Amoy, on account of the landing of Japanese troops there, and it is asserted that this action on the part of Japan "breaks the agreement of the powers" with the vicereign.

Considerable uneasiness is still felt at the non-arrival of direct news from Peking. It is expected, almost hourly, that the lines of communication will be restored, and that dispatches will then pass with little or no delay.

Reports from the Southern and Central provinces of the Empire are quieting, but no important outbreaks are reported.

PLAIN WORDS FROM MR. DENBY.

Among the many prominent Democrats who refuse to support Mr. Bryan and the platform upon which he stands is Hon. Charles Denby of Indiana, ex-United States Minister to China, who was a member of the first civil commission sent to the Philippines. Mr. Denby has written an open letter advocating the reelection of President McKinley. Mr. Denby's opposition to Bryan is based principally upon the latter's attitude in a political way for him, but is influenced by the hostility of legislators, who sought to bleed the company under threat of exacting unreasonable privileges for the people.

This is a subterfuge. Thirty years ago, just after the Central Pacific railroad had been completed, giving the Pacific Coast for the first time communication with the East by rail, there were no more popular citizens in the State of California than the quartet of men who were directly instrumental in accomplishing that great work. Let it not be forgotten that in doing this they received the most liberal support and encouragement from the people in the shape of enormous bonuses and subsidies from the Federal government, from the State, from counties and from communities.

In addition to this, however, they were regarded by the people of California as heroes, and, indeed, they had accomplished a great task under many difficulties. The State received them and their enterprise with open arms. Nothing was too good for them. Any reasonable—and in some cases unreasonable—requests were granted, until it finally began to dawn upon the people of the State that this corporation, instead of working in harmony with two people of the State by whom it had been brought into life and treated with such great liberality, and instead of seeking by liberal rates to develop the virgin wealth of California, while at the same time increasing its own income, was disposed to look upon the State as a patient cow to be milked.

Mr. Denby shows, among other things, that Bryan "used all his power and influence with those of his friends who are ready to listen to his counsels," to secure the ratification of the peace treaty with Spain, by which we became possessed of the Philippine Islands.

The treaty could not have been ratified without Democratic votes as is apparent from the fact that it was ratified by only one vote more than the necessary two-thirds of the Senate, and that seventeen Democratic Senators voted for its ratification. Moreover, the ratification of the treaty was consummated after the Tagals had fired upon our soldiers, not before. As Mr. Denby says, "Mr. Bryan advised his friends in the Senate to vote to ratify the treaty after the battle of February 5 had been fought." He knew that war had begun. He might have readily foreseen what complications might possibly occur out of the existing conditions. Then was the time to have talked about "the consent of the governed," and not now, when every speech he makes adds ten names to the roll of our dead and 100 to the Filipino dead.

The ratification of the treaty with Spain made the Philippine Islands a part of the territory of the United States, as much as Mr. Bryan's own State is. The State is part of the administration the constitutional duty of maintaining order throughout the islands. If the President had refused to discharge that duty he would have been guilty of inexcusable neglect and would have been justly censurable. As we have seen, it was Mr. Bryan's personal influence, exerted upon and through "his friends who are ready to listen to his counsels," which secured the ratification of the treaty, after the Tagals had made war upon our flag, and this rendered the country which the administration has since pursued an impulsive necessity and a constitutional duty. Now, then, can Mr. Bryan and his followers, with any show of consistency, attack the administration for overthrowing the course which Mr. Bryan's own action had made necessary?

Mr. Denby writes, with telling effect, on this connection: Mr. Bryan's own explanation of his action, "I believe," says Mr. Bryan, "we are now in a better position to wage a successful contest against imperialism than we would have been had the treaty been rejected." It thus appears that Bryan urged and advised the ratification of the treaty with the idea that it would add color to the charge of "imperialism" which he meant to bring against the administration later on. In other words, as Mr. Denby so well expresses it, "he wanted to create the bogie of 'imperialism' in order that he might fight and overcome the monster. . . . And so 'imperialism' was born, and its actual father was William J. Bryan. He is now endeavoring to destroy his own child."

The real question before the people, as Mr. Denby views the matter, is "whether the armies of the United States should be withdrawn at once, now and forever, and the islands turned over to the Tagals. Mr. Bryan was to recall the armies, and if he did he would let loose the horrors of a terrible revolution?" Can any man of judgment and common sense believe it to be our duty to take such a course? More than half the inhabitants of the Philippines prefer the strong and kindly rule of the United States, with its promise of ultimate self-government, to the uncertain "independence" and the continual civil war which would follow our withdrawal from the islands. The Tagals tribe, in particular, are the friends of the American régime. If the Tagals were to lay down their arms, the Vinayans and all the other tribes would immediately and gladly accept the form of government which we propose to give them, and the islands would at once enter upon an era of peace and prosperity unprecedented in their history.

The McKinley tariff act of 1890 put sugar on the free list, and gave the sugar growers of the United States a 2 cent bounty on their product. The Wilson act put a duty on sugar, and was waged by the warlike Tagals against the peaceful inhabitants of the islands.

The second step would probably be the establishment of a native diet, and nearly 4 cent per pound between raw and refined sugar. The consumption of sugar is about 1,000,000,000 pounds per annum, and the cost of sugar in the United States is about 200 million dollars. The Dingley act this was cut down by more than one half. That is why Mr. Haymer is more.

MORE TRICKERY.
Jadore Dockweiler in a Stew.

Methods of Los Angeles Democratic Push.

The Strange Predicament of "El Hutch" and Other Political Mixups.

There is much comment among local Democratic politicians over the regular primaries held Saturday for the election of delegates to the national convention. The "push" is jubilant over its alleged victory, and the "pull" is equally jubilant over its defeat. The former is advanced by the Southern "gang," headed by Thomas Tracy, that 60 per cent. of the men elected to Los Angeles county machine the machine.

On the other part of the question, the delegates of W. F. Burkhardt and Jadore Dockweiler in the Seventy-first Assembly District. On Friday night the convention of the Assembly district was held in St. Matthew's Church, Pico and San Vicente, in this city.

The "boxers" held a sacred concert in their private car, "The City of Pecking," at Terminal Island Sunday evening. The music was excellent, and Charlie Adams' rendition of "The Holy City" was much enjoyed. Among the guests were the Rev. Mr. Sherrill, Bishop Dales Cross, Babe Gordon, Smith, Knecht, Lucy Mitchell, Elsie Orr, Jenkins, Jan Jenkins, Ruth Jenkins, Merritt, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Merritt Minor, Clara Minor; Messrs. Ferguson, Christie, Adams, Kary Parsons, Roscoe Strader, Mackenzie, Marquis, Ruth, Hilda, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Ruth, Bootie, Parker, Brown, Will Parker, Perry, Parker, Will Parker, Kary Parsons, Frank Gray, Charles Adams, Woodford, Davidson, John York, Ross Boyd, Brack.

A moonlight party on the launch Meteor was given by the young folks of Terminal Island Sunday. The crowd met at the Gordon Arms and proceeded to board the launch, which was chartered for the occasion. Arriving at the party the band began to play. The party went to the pavilion to enjoy the music and participate in dancing. Leaving about 11 o'clock, the party arrived at Terminal an hour later. The following, chaptered by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Eaton, were the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Dales Cross, Alice Eaton, Helen Eaton, Helen Bootie, Alice Graves, Esther Minor, Clara Minor, Elsie Minor, Elsie Orr, Ruth, Hilda, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Ruth, Bootie, Parker, Perry, Parker, Kary Parsons, Frank Gray, Charles Adams, Woodford, Davidson, John York, Ross Boyd, Brack.

It is known that a plot was afoot to subvert Dockweiler for the regular convention. The plot was discovered by some of the local leaders, and they conspired to have the person in question think that it would be a bad breach of the party to have him as a delegate to the national convention. But he disclaimed all knowledge of such a scheme.

It is known that Dockweiler did not burbank by a majority, but by means of political trickery.

In certain places where the push was paraded, a ticket was given for a "regular cause ticket," but having Dockweiler's name in place of Burkhardt's, that ticket was won by the "push" precincts, the regular ticket receiving only a light vote where the battle was fought.

It is known that the very members of the "gang" who defeated Dockweiler in Friday's caucus, elected him Saturday to the national convention. It is known that politics are not the old way, but that the old way may be necessary, and nothing was lost to the "boxers" by giving it in the way they did it.

DOCKWEILER'S DENIAL.

Mr. Dockweiler is highly indignant at the story which has been freely circulated in the press, and he has made the following statement in the premises last evening:

"I was absolutely unaware of the fact that the Southern 'gang' which the primaries were being held, that I was being voted for in any precinct of the newly-formed Assembly District, as a delegate to the Democratic national convention. My name was used without authority."

He was approached by a number of persons, friendly toward me, and the suggestion made to me that I should be nominated, but I would not consent to be nominated, and I positively declined to permit the use of my name. I only ascertained that I had been used for this purpose, I read the news in the Los Angeles Times.

Some pressure has been brought to bear on Mr. Dockweiler, urging him to go to the national convention, and to go to the County Central Committee and asking for the appointment of W. F. Burkhardt in his stead, thus marking him as a traitor to the party, and to his efforts to secure his election. The steps to be taken have not yet been decided, but the Bryan leaders "say that if Dockweiler goes to the national convention, he will be a tempter."

"EL HUTCH"—HIS NERVE.

Typical discord pervades local Democracy, and it crops out in many ways. El Hutch, the "gang" of "El Hutch," has struck a wide arc in his course toward a leading place in Democratic ranks in California.

It is known that at the recent meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, held in San Francisco some weeks ago, Mr. Watson appeared at the meeting, while Mr. Tracy, the latter party was made second vice-chairman of the State Committee.

The most peculiar part of the whole transaction is that Mr. Tracy, of California, though forsooth he was not a member of the committee, he held the office of L. P. Collette, the committee from the newly-formed Assembly District, and is the way the rumor spread that Collette was to resign his place to Mr. Tracy.

Some pressure has been brought to bear on Mr. Dockweiler, urging him to go to the national convention, and to go to the County Central Committee and asking for the appointment of W. F. Burkhardt in his stead, thus marking him as a traitor to the party, and to his efforts to secure his election.

The steps to be taken have not yet been decided, but the Bryan leaders "say that if Dockweiler goes to the national convention, he will be a tempter."

GENERAL GOSSIP.

Although the date for the Democratic national convention has not been definitely announced, it will probably be held for September 25. The question is a chairman for the August assembly, and the exact date, discussion, and assembly. William Morris is being generally mentioned for the place.

Another matter of comment is the Democratic County Central Committee, which will be filled by the convention. Dr. R. W. Hill, the commanding officer of the committee, is to be chairman.

The "push" is advocating Martin C. Marsh for the place, while others outside the party are said to favor C. Harris or Passmore.

ADCOCK'S AMBITION.

R. J. Adcock's ambition to secure the Democratic Congressional nomination for this district has caused some comment.

He is now out in an announcement that he will not make a fight against either ex-Senator White or John R. Mathews, if either of those gentlemen are nominated. Otherwise his lofty aspiration will still remain in the working order: the "Adcock Marching Club" will march at Adcock's expense, and the man who cannot appreciate a joke will be the only one that will not laugh.

Communications intended for the society column of The Times must be signed, and must be anonymous. Letters of personal nature, etc., and those which, because they are anonymous, cannot be returned to the writer, will receive no attention.

George Miller Williams of Los Angeles and Miss M. A. Stevens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Stevens of Laramie, Wyo., were married Tuesday evening, August 26, in St. Matthew's Cathedral, Laramie, in the presence of a large number of the bride's friends. The Rev. Mr. Conner officiated. Mr. Williams is proprietor of the Geneva Watch and Optical Company on Broadway, this city, and Mrs. Williams is said to be very popular in musical and social circles in her home city. They are spending their honeymoon. They will reside in Los Angeles and will be at home to friends after September 5, at 1011 Lincoln street.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, Los Angeles, Cal.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Statesman, Historian, Economist, Author and Soldier,
Governor of New York, and Candidate for Vice-President of the United States.

PROMPTLY upon Governor Roosevelt's nomination for the Vice-Presidency, the leading Republican and Independent newspapers, believing they would be rendering a public service, formed an association to act as one buyer of an enormous edition of Governor Roosevelt's writings, so that all newspaper readers could obtain a fine library edition at a nominal price. The representative of the papers arranged with Governor Roosevelt's publishers, Messrs. G. P. Putnam's Sons, to obtain from them a limited edition to be sold for

$7.50 A SET IN CLOTH BINDING, INSTEAD OF AT $24.50,
the price which has heretofore prevailed. This edition is

TO BE SOLD TO READERS OF THE TIMES ONLY in sets of Fifteen Volumes for $7.50, or in single Volumes

For 50 Cents a Copy

They also arranged for a limited number of copies to be bound in PAPER COVERS, with untrimmed edges, so that those desiring it, could have the works bound in half calf, or other fine and expensive binding, as individual taste might desire. In this form they will be sold for the almost nominal price of $3.75 for the set of Fifteen Volumes, or in single volumes

For 25 Cents a Copy

The Messrs. Putnam's well known and well deserved reputation as makers of fine books, renders a further description of this beautiful edition unnecessary.

It may be stated, however, that among the illustrations will be found three separate portraits of Governor Roosevelt, as hunter, man, soldier and in civilian dress, and that has written a biographical sketch of Governor Roosevelt which will appear in this edition only.

REMEMBER the price heretofore, in cloth binding, cheapest edition, has been $24.50, and in finer binding up to $100 a set, at which many copies have been sold. The present low price of 25 cents a volume, or $3.75 for the set in paper covers, and 50 cents a volume, or $7.50 a set in cloth binding has been made with Governor Roosevelt's approval, to enable all his friends and admirers (and they are legion) as well as his opponents who are honest in their desire to know him as he is, to secure the complete set of these works at a moderate price. They will form a permanent and valuable addition to every library. The edition is limited and after the newspapers have made the distribution to their readers the regular price of $24.50 a set will prevail. Therefore delay in ordering now may lead to disappointment.

Act Now and Secure the Set.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Governor of New York State and candidate for Vice-President, not yet forty-two years old, is one of the "all-around" Americans of whom his countrymen are proud. Statesman, historian, economist, soldier, hunter, author, whatever he has turned his hand to has been well done. As an author he has many volumes already to his credit. One of these, written during his term in the Assembly, "The Naval War of 1812," was so able and impartial, exhibiting such judicial fairness that he has been engaged to write (and has written) that particular chapter of English naval history for the monumental "History of the English Navy," which the English naval experts are now issuing in great quarto volumes. No greater compliment has ever been paid in literature.

His latest book, "The Rough Riders," is everywhere recognized as one of the most perfect chapters of military history ever penned—both for manner and matter.

As a historian of the new school, Mr. Roosevelt's great work is "The Winning of the West," published in this edition in six volumes. His stories of "Hunting Trips of a Ranchman" and "The Wilderness Hunter" are marked by freshness, strength and felicity of expression as characteristic of the man as the accuracy, breadth and fairness of his historical works.

Mr. Roosevelt is a typical American, his ancestors having settled in New York in 1649. His great-grandfathers were officers in the Continental Army and Members of the Continental Congress. On both sides he comes from generations noted for their ability, patriotism and integrity, and it was the most natural thing for him to enter politics as a Civil Service reformer in the New York assembly a year after his graduation from college.

Whatever his hand was called upon to do, was well done and thoroughly done as his books show.

To form a true estimate of Gov. Roosevelt's character one must read his writings. They show, as no words can, what the man is.

The Wilderness Hunter

"Written by a mighty hunter, also a naturalist as well as a sportsman, a close observer as well as a writer, with Burroughs himself could write more interestingly of the sights and sounds of the wilderness."

Hunting the Grizzly, and other Selections

"One of those distinctively American books which ought to be always welcomed as contributing distinctly to the literary prestige of the country all over the world."

Administration—Civil Service

"The essays in this volume possess a special interest for the voters of today, in that they set forth the author's theories (theories based upon practical experience) of citizenship and of administration."

Hunting Trips of a Ranchman—Covering ranching in the Bad Lands and hunting large game and waterfowl.

Hunting Trips on the Prairie and in the Wilderness

"These sketches are not merely interesting as graphic pictures of hunting life, but have a historical value in recording a condition of things now rapidly passing away in the region of the prairies and the Rocky Mountains."

The Rough Riders—A valuable addition to American historical literature, covering the stirring events of the Cuban War.

The Winning of the West

"The six volumes presented in this history, while each complete in itself, comprises together a valuable history of the West and the Southwest. The critics have pointed out that in this history Governor Roosevelt has made a record for the Southwest that can fairly be paralleled with the 'Winning of the West' of the Middle West."

The Naval War of 1812

Or, the History of the United States Navy during the last war with Great Britain. To which is appended an account of the Battle of New Orleans.

"The volume is an excellent one in every respect, and shows in so young an author the best promise for a good historian—readiness of statement, caution, endeavor to be impartial, and a brisk and interesting way of telling events."

VOUCHER FOR CITY READERS

Good for one volume of ROOSEVELT'S WORKS when presented at The Times office, with 25c. if in paper cover, or 50c. if in cloth binding.

Hatchet Did It.

Had Boys to Sell.

Two boys, G. B. Bockman and C. A. Arthur, were arrested yesterday while in the act of trying to sell a quantity of books and papers which they had apparently stolen. They are locked up in the City Jail on the charge of petty larceny, while the case is being investigated.

Cassius Driver.

John Brown, who lives on Gibbons street, near the Kurtz-street bridge, was sent to the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon on account of slight injuries received when he was run down by a passing vehicle while flushing a sewer at Ninth and San Pedro streets.

Coroner's Inquest.

An inquest was held at Booth &amp; Booth's undertaking parlor yesterday on the body of Carlotta Marquez, of Santa Monica Canion, who was killed Saturday evening by the accidental discharge of a gun while returning from a hunting trip. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Big Midway Show.

The Executive Committee of the carnival to be held by the Los Angeles Athletic Club during the week beginning Aug. 24, has arranged for the Western Street Fair and Exhibition Company to exhibit its midway shows, which were features of the Sacramento and Stockton fairs.

Jailor Threatens.

I. W. Cook of Tropico called at the Police Station last night and left a large box of assorted fruit for the three jailers, Messrs. Conley, Huston and Hobson. The fruit was extra fine, some of the pieces of fruit weighed three and four pounds, while several of the peaches were twice the size of one's fist.

Misanthropes Will Talk.

A misanthropic meeting will be held at the First Church, Ninth Street and Grand Avenue, this morning at 10 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by J. S. Norville and Mrs. L. D. Copeland, returned misanthropes to China, and by Mrs. King of the City of China. There will also be other addresses, and the meeting promises to be of unusual interest. An invitation is extended to the public.

Sliding Burglar.

A burglar attempted to enter the residence at No. 1631 Orange street Sunday night, but was frustrated. Carpenters who were making repairs on the house, which the burglar had broken into, found a second-story window. Before effecting an entrance a woman approached him, carrying a lighted lamp, which caused the burglar to slide to the ground and disappear.

Way Cross Languishes.

Mrs. A. L. Clegg wants the public to know that lack of means is all that keeps her from being able to have her hand out of jail. She has all the money she had to a lawyer to defend her. Clegg was arrested at Westlake Park last Thursday night on the charge of receiving a sum of money for her son's trial set for September 8, and in default of $50 bail the hapless defendant was obliged to remain in jail until that date.

Two Clegg Cases.

At Second and Main streets yesterday afternoon two bicycle accidents were narrowly averted within a few minutes. A wheelman was crossing Main street when a car, driving at break-neck speed, ran him down. A moment later a messenger boy dashed around a corner on a bicycle, and instead of being struck by the more than an inch, frightening mamma dashed into hysterics.

Assignment of Teachers.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was to have been held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and among the business to be transacted was that of assigning teachers to their places in the city schools for the coming school year. Only four teachers had been appointed, however, and after waiting twenty minutes they adjourned until this morning at 10:30 o'clock, when the announcement was made that no more would be named.
